

Jamie joined the Chamber in June 2010 after obtaining her Bachelor of Communications Degree in 2009 from the College of St. Rose in Albany, NY. She is responsible for some of the office administration which includes maintaining the Chamber's media web pages, mailings, taking reservations and payments for all Chamber events. Jamie is currently also coordinating the Chamber's Experience China trip. In addition, she handles hundreds of calls a week from the membership and general public and greets visitors coming to the office. She tries to ensure that everyone is given professional service, quality information, and timely attention.
