

Carol Ricken Bio

Carol Ricken joined the Chamber in April, 2009 as Project Manager of the annual Ulster County Regional Chamber of Commerce "Keep it local" Community Resource Guide and Membership Directory.

Carol is the former Publisher of the weekly Mountain Eagle newspaper; she was Regional Advertising Sales Manager of the Catskill Mountain Guide magazine, and local Sales Manager for WTZA-TV (now RNN). She has a broad knowledge of advertising sales and design, editorial content, production and distribution. Carol is currently a member of the Board of Directors of Family of Woodstock and on the executive committee of the Woodstock Farm Festival. She has served on the board of directors of the Woodstock Guild, River Arts Repertory, and the scholarship committee of Ulster-Greene ARC.

Carol graduated from Millersville State University with a degree in education and did her graduate work in American Studies at New York University. While living in New York City, Carol acted in the soap opera "Love of Life" and productions of Circle Repertory Theater.
