

The Ulster Chamber's new Travel Trip Coordinator is no stranger to travel. Anna Brett has been traveling the globe since her days in college at Russell Sage. Since then, she has traveled to England, Ireland, Wales, Scotland, France, Italy, Greece, Belgium, Amsterdam, U.S.S.R. (Russia), Egypt, South Africa, most Caribbean Islands, including St. Kitts, St. Thomas, Aruba, Bonaire, Curaçao, Jamaica, Dominican Republic, Turks and Caicos, Cabo San Lucas, Antigua, St. Lucia, Belize, parts of Canada including Montreal, Kingston, Toronto, and British Columbia.

Anna graduated from Russell Sage College with an MS in Health Education and then received her CAS in Educational Administration at SUNY New Paltz. She began her career in teaching at Kingston High School and later became Dean of Students at KHS, then Assistant KHS Principal, and finally Principal at the Chambers Elementary School.

Anna is currently a member of the SUNY Ulster Board of Trustees and is Co-Chair of Awards and Grants of the Ulster County Italian American Foundation.

She has also been active with more than a dozen local organizations including Junior League of Kingston, Friends of Historic Kingston, the Forsyth Nature Center, Woodland Pond at New Paltz, St. Joseph's Church and the Ladies Ancient Order of Hibernians.

Anna and her husband Ken have been a part of several Chamber Trips in the past few years, and she looks forward to welcoming travelers to all our upcoming trips.
