Valerie Walsh bio for website:

Valerie Walsh joined the Ulster County Regional Chamber of Commerce on April 30, 2013, as an Office Assistant and quickly became an integral part of the Chamber team. Recognizing her dedication, organizational skills, and commitment to excellence, she was promoted to Office Manager in December of that same year.

Before joining the Chamber, Valerie spent 35 years at WKNY Radio in Kingston, where she served as Office Manager and handled a wide range of administrative and operational responsibilities. Her extensive experience, versatility, and knowledge of the local community have been valuable assets throughout her career.

With decades of professional experience and a strong commitment to serving others, Valerie plays an important role in keeping the Chamber's daily operations running smoothly and supporting its members, staff, and business community. Her dedication and wealth of experience make her a valued member of the Ulster Chamber family.
